Colorado State University

ELIGIBILITY

Scholarships are gift aid and do not have to be repaid. Scholarships are awarded based on different factors including merit, financial need, and talent. Most scholarships awarded by Colorado State University require recipients to be U.S. Citizens or permanent residents.

DESCRIPTION

Boettcher Opportunity Award Funded by the Boettcher Foundation, the scholarship was established to benefit under-represented groups on campus. Recipients will meet the following criteria:

1. Residents of the State of Colorado and U.S. citizens or permanent residents.
2. First generation college students (neither parent has received a bachelor's degree).
3. Sophomores, juniors, or seniors without a first bachelor's degree.
4. Enrolled full-time in any major with a cumulative 3.0 Colorado State University GPA.
5. Taking courses generally accepted as "academic" and making progress towards their degree.

The $3,000 annual award is renewable provided students maintain a cumulative 3.0 GPA and provide an annual report to the Boettcher Foundation detailing their academic year experience. Typically, five $3,000 scholarships are awarded.

University of Northern Colorado

ELIGIBILITY

Be admitted to UNC prior March 1

Complete and submit the UNC Universal Scholarship Application before March 1

Students are encouraged to apply for admission by February 1 to receive maximum consideration

DESCRIPTION

Scholarships are normally awarded on merit or talent and do not have to be paid back. UNC offers a variety of scholarships and our scholarship application process is fast and easy. Incoming freshman and transfer students must be admitted to UNC before March 1, to be considered for many of the merit scholarships for the current academic year. We'll use the information you provide on your admissions application and on your high school or college transcripts to determine your eligibility for some of our scholarships. If you want to apply for scholarships offered through the UNC Foundation, the UNC Universal Scholarship Application is available online in Ursa. The application is usually available from December until March 1.
